Felton's Clutch and Brake Service Becomes Power Heavy Duty Member

Crystal Lake, Ill. – Power Heavy Duty has announced the addition of Felton's Clutch and Brake Service as its newest member company. Based in Chattanooga, Tennessee, Felton's Clutch and Brake Service started in 1964 and includes a customer base of fleets, municipalities, owner operators, and repair garages within a 50-mile radius of Chattanooga.

The company's main product line is rebuilt clutches for light/medium trucks, agricultural and off-highway applications. They also provide flywheel grinding, complete driveline service and in-house relining of brake shoes.

"For more than 50 years the staff at Felton's Clutch and Brake Service has provided Tennessee and many surrounding areas with excellent and reliable service and is continually adding new technologies to better serve its customers," said Mark Iasiello, general manager of Power Heavy Duty. "We are pleased to welcome them to Power Heavy Duty."
